RED MEN'S PIC-NIC,

To be Given in Barbourville, On Next Tuesday, July, 4th, 1905.

THE RED MEN are now hustling to have everything in readiness for July fourth, when the greatest celebration ever held in South-eastern Kentucky will be given in this city under the auspices of Tehopitoulas Tribe, No. 111, Improved Order of Red Men.

Excursion trains will be run from both ends of the road people will come for miles around, and the beautiful Grounds will be taxed to its capacity to accommodate the people.

An amusing and interesting program has been arranged, and able speakers will here to address the assembly, while an abundance of provision will be on the grounds to feed the people and plenty of refreshing, ice cold drinks will be on the grounds.

A big parade of all the Tribes in South-eastern Kentucky in real Indian uniform, most of them on horseback, will march from the Public Square to the grounds, led by the Red Men's Cornet Band of this city. They will furnish music for the day.

Upon arrival at the grounds, the Red Men will capture a pale face, found trespassing upon the hunting grounds of the Tribe, and after the Indian trial, will be tortured at the stake. A thrilling scene will be enacted that will make your blood run cold as you witness the scene of burning a pale face at the stake.

The Indian war dance will be an interesting feature, and will be witnessed by thousands of spectators. You must not miss this one of the most laughable scenes ever witnessed. The old squaws will also be there, and seated around the wigwam, will tell the fortunes of those who have a desire to know what the future holds in store for them. No one can tell with half the accuracy the future as these Indian squaws.

The Improved Order of Red Men have studied the customs and practices of this peculiar people and have adopted many of their virtues and framed them to suit our modern customs, and to-day there are about 400,000 Americans who have espoused the cause they represent.

The local tribe here was instituted last August, with 22 members, and has grown constantly since until it now numbers about 70 of the best men in the county.

The full roster of Tehopitoulas Tribe at present is as follows: R. O. Allen, A. G. Bolton, H. W. Bowman, P. D. Black, G. P. Bain, D. W. Beets, J. E. Byrley, W. M. Baker, W. F. Baker, P. C. Collett, H. C. Cole, M. Cannon, J. T. Culton, W. D. Chamberlain, W. F. Clark, J. No. Dixon, W. F. Dozier, E. B. Dishman, M. G. Dizney, L. W. Farmer, L. H. Golden, G. M. Golden, W. G. Gray, Jas. Golden, R. F. Harbin, W. F. Gregory, R. F. Harbin, J. H. Hurst, A. W. Hopper, Harve Hammons, H. L. Hutton, B. F. Herndon, A. J. Hale, H. B. Jones, W. M. Jones, J. H. Jackson, Wm. Lewis, W. C. Lockhart, G. M. Lane, W. H. McDonald, E. J. Miller, R. B. McDonald, V. McDonald, J. W. Messamore, Wm. McDaniel, John Parker, T. C. Parrott, Josia. Patterson, M. S. Parrott, Joshua Parrott, J. R. Smyth, R. M. Stansbury, R. B. Smith, F. D. Sampson, Lee Scalf, W. S. Taylor, G. F. Taylor, G. M. Taylor, A. C. Vaughn, J. M. Wilson, D. M. White, D. T. Wilson, J. H. Woolmum, J. B. Westerfield.

There are already four more that have been elected to take the degrees, and quite a list of others who want to become members and the Tribe expects to have a membership of 100 by the time it one year old.

Be sure to come to this grand Fourth of July Pic-nic as there never was anything like it in this country before. Don't listen to any rumor that it is called off but come and see it all.

Everybody is coming that day.

The Poor Relation.

The Ladies of the Maccabees of this city will give a public entertainment this (Friday) evening at the Institute Chapel where they will present "Ilda Ward," or "The Poor Relation."

This is a comedy-drama, in six acts and is full of fun all the way through. The entire cast of characters are home talent, and it will be amusing to see our fair Ladies appear before the footlights. Don't miss this entertainment as it promises to be a source of pleasure for the entire evening.

New Pastor Appointed.

Daniel W. Brown, a young minister only 19 years of age has been appointed by Elder E. B. Hill, to take charge of the Gray Circuit, which was left vacant some time ago by the unfortunate death of the pastor, Rev. W. C. Judd.

Mr. Brown was admitted on trial in the Kentucky Conference in 1904, and is now its youngest member. He was left with appointment to attend school, and was a student of Union College this year.

We hope that he will have great success as he enters upon this responsible work, especially in carrying out the plans to build a new M. E. Church at Tuttle.

We learn that the work on the building is being rapidly carried on, and the new Church will be ready for dedication by the fourth quarterly conference.

The people of Gray circuit should rally around their young pastor and help him in every way possible in the struggle to build up Christ's kingdom.

OLD POINT COMFORT

Old Point Comfort and the Seashore C. & O. route Friday, July 14, 1905 $12.00 from Lexington, Winchester, Mt. Sterling, Morehead.

Trains leave Lexington 11.20 a. m. and 8.45 p. m.

The famous Virginia Springs, Historic City of Richmond, delightful Old Point Comfort and Fortress Monroe, Navy Yards at Portsmouth, Virginia Beach on the broad Atlantic are among the attractive features together with side trip excursions at low rates from Old Point.

The route is through the Blue Grass Regions of Kentucky, the canyons of New River, alongside the picturesque Greenbrier River, through the Alleghenies, and the wonderful Blue Ridge Mountains, the beautiful Shenandoah and Piedmont Valleys.

Surf bathing, boating and fishing can be enjoyed at Old Point.

Stop-over privileges will be granted East of Kanawha Falls on the return trip, enabling visit to the famous Virginia Mountain Resorts and other points of interest on the C. & O. Railway.

Excursions may return either via Charlottesville and Staunton or via Lynchburg and Natural Bridge, along the James River.

Tickets will be good returning July 28, 1905.

Concentration of Development Forces in West Virginia, Kentucky and Virginia.

In the great central coal and timber region embracing West Virginia and part of Kentucky and South-west Virginia are centering the most gigantic development forces of America. In that section there is an eager scramble by the leading financiers and the great industrial corporations to secure control of large properties already owned. Railroad construction, coal mining, lumbering operations and vast industrial movements generally are under way.

In order to present to the world a comprehensive story of the resources of that territory and of the forces which are now combining to make that region one of the greatest industrial centers of the world, the Manufacturer's Record of Baltimore will for the next few months have its special correspondent, Mr. Albert Phenix, make a careful and comprehensive study of its natural advantages, its wealth of coal and timber and its railroad development, and in a series of broad and comprehensive letters, which will be given the widest possible circulation, Mr. Phenix will tell the story of the coal and iron and timber and railroad development of West Virginia, Virginia and Kentucky.

In order to further this work and to secure all possible data which may add to its value, Manufacturers' Record invites suggestions regarding matters of special interest covering the resources and progress of this section and the prospects of large developments in the future.

INDEPENDENCE DAY.

John Adams one of the signers of the declaration of Independence in a letter to his wife on the day before old Liberty Bell rang out the peal of independence said:

"I am apt to believe that it will be celebrated by succeeding generations as the great Anniversary Festival. It ought to be commemorated, as the day of deliverance, by solemn acts of devotion to God Almighty. It ought to be solemnized with pomp, shows, bells, bonfires and illuminations from one end of the country to the other from this time forward forever."

"Thus we see that even before the declaration of our National Independence had been signed, it was prophesied by a man who afterwards graced the Presidents' chair how the anniversary would be celebrated.

It is also a historical fact that he and Thomas Jefferson who also signed the declaration of Independence and afterward became President of the United States, both died on this national holiday both dying on the same day in 1826, just 50 years after the signing of the famous document declaring American Independence.

They both lived to see the full realization of what their work meant and also to see how true the prophecy of Mr. Adams.

This day will be kept as a national holiday and celebrated as long as our government stands.

Every school boy and girl is taught the story of how, more than a century and a quarter ago, our forefathers dared to throw off the yoke of the tyrannical George III, and to commemorate their act of bravery and courage we have made the anniversary a great day in America. May the zeal of Americans never grow less but may the day forever be celebrated in honor of the great work done in shaking off the shackles that bound them and by doing so made of America the greatest country on which the sun has never shown.

Next Tuesday will be the Annual celebration of this memorial day and now let's all turn out and make of it a day of pleasure and enjoyment and entertainment to our friends as well as to ourselves.

ing itself to the active work of pushing the big exhibition.

Kentucky has held two previous State fairs, one at Louisville in 1902 and one at Owensboro in 1903. The first was scarcely a success, the second an utter failure. This year, however, located at Lexington, the center of the agricultural and live stock interests of the State, the fair is almost certain to prove a winner. It will be managed by a Board of Control composed of five directors of the Kentucky Live Stock Breeders Association and three representatives of the Lexington Chamber of Commerce. This board met last week to make preliminary arrangements. Frank G. Hagan, of Anchorage, President of the Kentucky Live Stock Breeders Association and one of the foremost breeders of Shorthorn cattle in the South, was chosen as president; George A. Bain, the most famous auctioneer of trotting horses in the world, was elected secretary; J. Walter Rhodes, cashier of the Phoenix National Bank, was made treasurer, and The Kentucky Farmer and Breeder, published at Lexington, was named as official organ of the fair. Offices have already been opened at Lexington and nothing will be left undone from this time forward to make the fair the greatest possible success.

"Patsy" McDaniel left Tuesday night for Illinois, having accepted a lucrative position with an oil-developing company.

In view of the large number of visitors that will be in Barbourville during July the younger set is preparing for extensive entertaining.

Miss Lyda Helton, of Madison county, and Miss Edna Hays, of Winchester, arrived Saturday afternoon for a few days' visit to Mr. and Mrs. John M. Tinsley.

Mr. James Warters of the firm, Bean, Warters & Co., and daughter, Miss Magdalene, of Knoxville, have been the guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Decker several days.

Judge Faulkner was in Louisville the earlier part of the week, going there from Covington, where he attended the meeting of the State Bar Association.

Prof. Reibald, who will be at the head of the Normal department of Union College, moved his household effects here this week, preparatory to taking up his residence in Barbourville.

Best Pop on earth at Bowman's.

If you want blank deeds, call at this office; we have them.

The following young ladies are expected to arrive Saturday to be the guests of Mrs. John G. Matthews at a house party the greater part of July: Misses Mary Hurt and Mary Matthews, Virginia; Mollie Riley, London, and Marion Mason, Louisville.

Misses Georgia and Gertrude Black will have a number of central Kentucky friends at a house party one week beginning July 10. Those in the party will be, Misses Smith, Brown and Bogle, Danville; Misses Bolton and Leavell, Bryantsville; Misses Robb and Darnell, Maysville; Misses Deering, Nicholasville, and McDonald, of Middleboro.

Miss Mayo Tinsley will entertain a number of friends with a house party the first two weeks of July. The guests will arrive Monday. Those who will compose the crowd are Miss Stanley Reese, Winchester; Misses Eleanor Silcott, Allene Thetson and Ethel Wolfe, of Cattlettsburg. Miss Tinsley's sister, Mrs. Marcum, of Cattlettsburg, will chaperon the party and, with Mr. Marcum, will also arrive Monday.

A. M. Decker has greatly improved the appearance of his Main street home by cleaning away the rubbish, shrubbery and etc. and putting a new pair of stone steps to the front porch and otherwise improving the premises. The change is so great that one would scarcely recognize it as the same place.

Dan H. Williams has a few pair of Misses $1.25 patent leather sandals to close out at 75c a pair; sizes from 10s to 14s.

The Editor has had the misfortune this week to lose a very valuable milch cow and to us it was a severe loss as it was all we had and are not able to replace the loss with another one.

Send your orders for "Pop" to H. W. Bowman, proprietor of the Cumberland Beverage Works, and get the best Pop.

Social Calendar

The coming few weeks will be replete with entertainments, outings, dances, etc. in honor of out-of-town visitors. As far as has been ascertained the following dates have been made for the coming week:

Monday evening, July 3, Mr. and Mrs. John M. Tinsley, reception, in honor of Misses Helton and Hays.

Tuesday morning, Miss Mayo Tinsley, reception, to the Tinsley and Matthews house parties.

Wednesday evening, tally-ho party.

Thursday morning, Mrs. John G. Matthews, musical, in honor of out-of-town visitors.

Friday evening, Miss Eva Shively, dance.

Various informal affairs will doubtless be arranged for unclaimed dates.

THE HOME CIRCLE COLUMN.

A WOMAN'S HEART.

God's angels took a little drop of dew Fresh fallen from the heaven's far-off blue, And a white violet, so pure and bright, Shedd'ing its fragrance in the moon's soft light. And a forget-me-not laid altogether out of sight. Within the chalice of a lily white, With humbleness and grace they covered it. And added pride to this and fears a few, One wish, but half a hope and bright tears, too. Courage and sweetness in misfortunes smart And out of this they moulded woman's heart.

IF you have any doubt in your mind as to the good that can come to you by living in the Sunshine way, we ask you to try for one day and prove by personal experience whether or not it is worth your while to scatter sunshine. Begin at once by trying to make those about you in your home happier. Keep a sharp lookout for little opportunities of helpfulness. Be courteous and kind whenever you speak or are spoken to. Be pleasant to everyone everywhere. Be willing to sacrifice your personal enjoyment if by doing so you can make another person happier. Do all this and see when night comes if your own heart is not full to overflowing with peace and joy unspcakably.

Of all the words cherished in the recollection of man—of all the words held sacred in his memory, that of mother falls upon his heart with the most sublime influence. Through helpless infancy her throbbing heart was our safe protection and support, and through the ills and maladies of childhood her gentle hand ministered and soothed as none other could. We feel animated to struggle more manfully in great battles of life when we remember our mother's holy counsel to us in childhood's early dawn, and in the slippery paths of youth. Ah! those of tenderness—those pious precepts softened by a "mother's love"—too much unheeded then, and disregarded—live now, brightened in memory, and constitute our sweetest recollections. Her prayers for us in childhood—her sparkling crystal tears, made an impression on our young minds as durable as time and even now they bid us walk in the paths of rectitude.

To bring up a child in the way he should go, travel that way yourself. Stories first heard at a mother's knee are never wholly forgotten; a little spring that never dries up on our journey through scorching years. The sooner you get a child to be a law unto himself, the sooner you make a man of him. Children need models more than criticism. We can never check what is in the young unless we cherish what is good in them. Line upon line, precept upon precept, we must have serenity, peace and the absence of petty fault finding. If home is to be a nursery fit for heaven growing plants. There are no men and women, however poor they may be, but have in their power, by the grace of God, to leave behind them the grandest thing on earth—character; and their children might rise up after them and thank God that their mother was a pious woman or their father a pious man.

A little fun has a great effect upon the different characters of men and women. Martha—the Martha we all love—knows this and encourages it in her home. So sisters, if John is cross, if the children try your patience, if—well, the stovepipe even should fall down (as ours did today), and everything goes wrong—don't worry. Worry drains the system and shortens our lives. Joy is the sunshine of the heart. Let's laugh and enjoy every moment of time as it passes. It's just as easy to be a leader as a wheel horse. If the job be long the pay will be greater. Be cheerful; don't worry; laugh at your troubles and your home will be happy and you will be the Martha who made it so. Try it for one year.

THE responsibilities of home training rests chiefly upon the mothers of our land. The fathers are necessary.

A Column Dedicated to Tired Mothers as they Join the Home Circle at Evening Tide.

It is driven out to face stern realities of life and the time spent in society of their families is circumscribed. The mothers—the queens of the home—too often allow themselves to be engrossed with household duties, to the neglect of the little ones. It is true we live a fast age, the demands of civilization are insatiable. Thousands of details press upon the mother's mind and energy, especially in the absence of hired help, and eventually under-mine her physical strength, and as the mental are always in sympathy with the physical, mental aberration might possibly ensue. Let them economize time, take advantage of all the short cuts to do things—thus gaining time to spend with those little jewels, merely loaned to them by a beneficent Creator; let them devote as much time as possible to them, make themselves worthy of their confidence and love, and interest themselves in all things which pertain to their children's interest and attention. Seek their opinion concerning business matters around the home thus inculcating a spirit of self confidence which is an indispensable prerequisite in the battle of life. Sympathize with them in all their little grievances, which are manifold and multifarious.

KEEP YOUNG.

The middle aged woman needs to keep a sharp lookout upon herself. There is danger of standing still mentally, of leaning at thirty or forty upon very brittle opinions and ideas formed at twenty years of age. Too many girls stop short in their education. It is never wise to adopt the notion that one can stop learning. Every day has its lesson.

Men stay young longer than women. Perhaps it is because a man at twenty-one years old knows that he knows in the world's opinion anyway. He is just preparing to run a race over a course untrod by his feet, though trodden by millions of others.

He studies himself, looks about him and reflects that if he is to keep in the race he must have his eyes wide open all the time and learn how to run as he goes. The young woman usually considers that with her college diploma in hand strenuous mental application and effort come to an end. With the young man school and college are only preparations for the activities and achievements of maturity. The phenomenally brilliant undergraduate is seldom heard of again—man or woman. Too early development is not a favorable augury. The great school is the school of life, with a course of study covering three score years and ten. It is those who are recognized forces during the last half of this schooling who are of account in the world.

ALFRED S. WRIGHT COMPANY BROKERS

48 SOUTH THIRD STREET.
PHILADELPHIA.

To the Investors and Stockholders:-

We offer subject to sale 100,000 Shares of the Capital stock of the Carolina Copper Company at $ .50 PER SHARE.

This Company is capitalized for $1,000,000. and is divided into 1,000,000 Shares of $1.00 Par Value.

The property of the Carolina Copper Company, which contains over Five Hundred Acres of land and includes the Holloway Mine which is the most prominent mine in the district, is located about fifty miles East of Danville, Virginia, on a spur of the Southern Railway, extending to Granville County, North Carolina.

Extensive development work has been carried on, by the expenditure of many thousands of dollars to determine the ore bodies, and the methods of treating the same. While the ore averages from Twenty to Thirty Dollars per ton Copper, also carrying a small per centage of Gold and Silver, Ninety per cent of this value can be saved by concentrating the ore. After the concentrating plant is completed, the company will then be on a paying basis and dividends forthcoming.

While the Company is only capitalized for $1,000,000., only 800,000 Shares have been issued, including the 100,000 Shares, which we are now offering, and furthermore, we are safe in saying that after this allotment is sold, no more stock will be offered, for the simple reason that these 100,000 Shares will supply ample funds for the erection of the Concentrating plant, and when completed the stock will no longer sell at $ .50 Per Share, but will advance to $1.00 per share, and when the dividends are declared, the stock will go far above Par Value.

The Board of Directors are men of high repute, of which we hereby give the list as follows:-

Mr. J. E. Stott, Harrisburg, Pa.	Mr. T. F. Windle, Parkersburg, Pa.
Mr. W. A. P. Thompson, Coatesville, Pa.	Mr. Chas. P. Lukens, "
Mr. F. W. Speakman, "	Mr. W. W. Fry, Philadelphia, "
Mr. E. H. Doan, "	Mr. G. H. B. Martin, Camden, N. J.

We have prepared a prospectus and same will be mailed to you upon application; same gives you in detail the proposition we are now presenting to you and owing to the limited space which we have secured in this paper, we are unable to go into detail here.

Yours very truly,
